Theatre Night in Guildford

After completing our pick-ups as usual, we will head straight to the Stirling Arms for dinner. Following dinner, we will proceed to the Garrick for this month's show. Our director tonight, Siobhan Vincent, has an impressive portfolio of award-winning plays, and we are all looking forward to enjoying "The Playboy of the Western World", written by John Millington Synge.

Synopsis

"The Playboy of the Western World" follows the story of Christy Mahon, a timid young man who arrives in a remote Irish village claiming to have killed his father. He quickly becomes a local hero and wins the heart of Pegeen Flaherty, until his supposedly dead father appears, exposing Christy's "heroism" as a boastful lie. This revelation leads to a comical and chaotic turn of events, where the villagers turn against him. Ultimately, Christy finds true bravery by defending himself against his father, transforming his identity beyond the myth.

Theatre Night in Guildford July

Tonight, we will conduct our pickups as usual, meeting both groups at the Stirling Arms Hotel for a meal before the show. We are in for a treat tonight! Award-winning director Lynne Devenish is presenting "The Beast", written by Eddie Perfect.

Eddie Perfect's play, "The Beast", is a dark, modern-day black comedy and satire about three middle-class couples who move to the countryside for a sustainable lifestyle and host a "nose-to-tail" dinner party that goes awry.

Please note that there are some warnings for this show (it is R-rated):

- Targeted Satire
- Strong Language
- Adult Themes
- Potential Gore and Violence
- Controversial Dialogue

While this may seem like a lot, we know the director very well, and we are confident it will be done exceptionally. It promises to be a great night for sure!

Have a Go Day and a Great Lunch Date

The Annual Have a Go Day is here, and we thought we'd try something a little different this year. We will run the event like the Great Lunch Date by picking everyone up as usual and meeting at Burswood Park. Once there, you'll have plenty of time to explore all the different static and interactive stalls. Last year, we had singers, dancers, artists, and more! There will be a wealth of information on display for you to browse and learn about various services and activities, so be sure to check out our stall as well!

Now, for the Great Lunch Date part. Since we are so close to Crown, we couldn't miss the opportunity to go to the Atrium! We'll hop on the coach and drop everyone off at the Food Court Entrance. Evan and Rod will then park the buses, and off we go!

We've allowed time for lunch, drinks, or a walk through the casino. Please note that any games played will be at your own expense.

In the afternoon, we will leave the casino and head home after a fantastic day together.

Please remember that there will be a decent amount of walking outside in the sun, so be sure to bring a hat, sunscreen, and comfortable shoes. The park is flat and accessible for walkers if needed.

Guildford Theatre Night Old Tyme Music Hall

It's our last Theatre night for 2026, and we are going out with a bang! the Dame of community theatre, Kerry Goode is devising a new Olde Tyme Music Hall night. Think back to the days of jaunty tunes, inuendo and comedy skits through the whole evening. Kerry had devised a music hall night before, and it was an absolute treat of a night. Live music, singing, dancing and laughter are to be shared all around.

We of course have dinner one last time at the Stirling Arms before heading to the theatre across the road. This will sell out quickly. So do not hesitate to book this in.

There is no synopsis for this show, as it will be an original piece.
